

MdEP Jutta Paulus was a guest at KIT on January 13. As a member of the Environment Committee, she was particularly interested in the research on plastics recycling at the ITC and the options for closing the carbon cycle as explored in the Carbon Cycle Lab and the Energy Lab. Another topic was atmospheric aerosol research at the AIDA simulation chamber.